

"Making A Difference Each Day In Every Way"

Target and the Kenard Lang Foundation Provides School Supplies for Local Elementary and Middle School Students

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Calvin Lang (321) 228-1816

Tatyana McCall (407) 383-2345

Orlando, FL, July 19, 2007

The Kenard Lang Foundation in a partnership with Target will be providing school supplies for local students for the second year in a row. On Monday, July 23, 2007 at the Target located at 7501 W. Colonial Drive Orlando, FL 32818, the event will begin at 8:30AM. The students will be provided a continental breakfast, an informative session with Mr. Kenard Lang, 11 year veteran, DE with the Denver Broncos, and supplies determined as necessary to give students the best opportunity to learn. The students that were selected to receive the supplies were identified through the social workers of the North Learning Community of the Orange County Public Schools System.

The Kenard Lang Foundation supports youth and education, and individuals dealing with cancer. The mission of the Kenard Lang Foundation is to inspire people to love life though living with cancer, while making provisions for the future by encouraging our youth through education. For additional information on this event or for more information on the foundation please visit our website at www.kenardlangfoundation.org